this is a novella written by franz kafka which was first published in 1915 one of kafka's best known works the metamorphosis tells the story of salesman gregor samsa who wakes one morning to find himself inexplicably transformed into a huge insect subsequently struggling to adjust to this new condition

as Gregor Samsa awoke one morning from uneasy dreams he found himself transformed in his bed into a gigantic insect he was laying on his hard as it were armor plated back and when he lifted his head a little he could see his domelike brown belly divided into stiff arched segments on top of which the bed quilt could hardly keep in position and was about to slide off completely his numerous legs which were pitifully thin compared to the rest of his bulk waved helplessly before his eyes with its startling bizarre yet surprisingly funny first opening Kafka begins his masterpiece The Metamorphosis it is the story of a young man who transformed overnight into a giant beetle like insect becomes an object of disgrace to his family an outsider in his own home a quintessentially alienated man a harrowing though absurdly comic meditation on human feelings of inadequacy guilt and isolation The Metamorphosis has taken its place as one of the most widely read and influential works of twentieth century fiction as W. H. Auden wrote Kafka is important to us because his predicament is the predicament of modern man

Kafka's work has been attributed a universal significance and is often regarded as the ultimate witness of the human condition in the twentieth century yet his work is also considered paradigmatic for the expression of the singular that cannot be subsumed under any generalization this paradox engenders questions not only concerning the meaning of the universal as it manifests itself in and is transformed by Kafka's writings but also about the expression of the singular in literary fiction as it challenges the opposition between the universal and the singular the contributions in this volume approach these questions from a variety of perspectives they are structured according to the following issues ambiguity as a tool of deconstructing the pre established philosophical meanings of the universal the concept of the law as a major symbol for the universal meaning of Kafka's writings the presence of animals in Kafka's texts the modernist mode of writing as challenge of philosophical concepts of the universal and the meaning and relevance of the universal in contemporary Kafka reception this volume examines central aspects of the interplay between philosophy and literature as a Jew Kafka received nothing in inheritance from his father nevertheless throughout his oeuvre subtly remnants of Jewish words can be deciphered hence the question at the heart of this book what remains when what's left is a nothing of judaism letter to the father this question necessitates a philosophical and jewish reading of his work prompting a reconsideration of the intricate relationships between the jew and the west and the jew and modernity thus this book proposes an examination of kafka's oeuvre to uncover what remains jewish therein at the heart of europe amidst modernity where nothing remains the enigma of the letter
